
ACTECON is happy to announce that Özlem Başiböyük Coşkun and Alper Karafil were promoted to Senior Associate, effective as of January 2, 2023

ACTECON is happy to announce that Özlem Başiböyük Coşkun and Alper Karafil were promoted to Senior Associate, effective as of January 2, 2023.

Özlem Başiböyük Coşkun joined the firm in 2018 and provides legal advice to a wide range of clients on investigations initiated by the Turkish Competition Authority, merger control processes, and judicial review proceedings filed against the decisions of the Turkish Competition Authority. Özlem is also experienced in competition compliance programmes and negative clearance/exemption proceedings.

Alper Karafil joined the firm in 2019. He provides legal advice on competition law, regulation, and data protection law. Alper assists clients mainly in investigations initiated by the Turkish Competition Authority, merger control related issues with comprehensive experience in Phase II review and remedy procedures as well as day-to-day competition matters. Alper also plays an active role in negative clearance / exemption proceedings and compliance projects conducted within the scope of the Turkish and European data protection legislation.